

Dear FCC--I am growing increasingly concerned with the amount of unchecked partisanship demonstrated by media companies throughout the US. On the heels of the Sinclair fiasco comes Pappas, a company set to give out hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of advertising to Republican candidates in my home state. Why is this fair? Where is the FCC? Your leniency on issues such as this is astounding. Your vigilance on issues such as Howard Stern's profanity is equally astounding. I will be pleased to see these priorities trade places.
